

MAY EXTEND THE T. & G. RAILROAD INTO CALIFORNIA

President Austin of Tonopah Mining Says the T. & G. Line May Tap Timber District.

During the past ten days there have been many rumors afloat concerning the extension of the Tonopah and Goldfield railroad into the Bodie district. Strength has been added to the reports on the arrival of President Austin and Director C. A. Daniels, of the Tonopah Mining company, who are also interested in the railroad. Both these gentlemen, accompanied by President M. B. Cutter of the T. & G., went on a trip into the Bodie district, from which they returned last Friday night. C. E. Knox, president of the Montana Mining company, was also a member of the party. Mr. Knox is interested in that district in both mining and timber lands.

When asked concerning the rumor yesterday, Mr. Austin stated that the purpose of the recent trip was to look over the situation from a business standpoint, as it was the desire of the company to tap a timber producing district.

"No definite conclusion has been reached concerning the project," said Mr. Austin. "As the matter will have to go before the board of directors of the railroad, Mr. Cutter is now on his way east, but will not arrive in Philadelphia until after the monthly meeting, so it will not be settled until the latter part of November."

"As no surveys have been made, I cannot state where the starting point of the proposed branch would connect with the local road."

Mr. Austin was then asked concerning the future site of the railroad shops, which the company contemplates rebuilding in a short time. "That is another question which will have to be settled by the directors," said Mr. Austin.

SHE INFORMED THE POLICEMAN OF HER TROUBLES

CHIEF MALLEY HAS TIME LISTENING TO VARIOUS COMPLAINTS

If you have troubles, tell them to the policeman. That is what he is for. If you wish to find out if this rule is complied with, just drop into Chief Malley's office any day and notice the many people who invade his private office. Each visitor has troubles to which the big chief must listen. Yesterday a colored woman entered the office, and, of course, the bunch present immediately migrated to the outer room. The conversation which took place was something like this:

"Mistah Malley, I've dun been insulted. Yes, suh, insulted. A low-down cullud fellow stabled abusin' me in a way that was somethin' awful. My goodness, of all the nasty, filthy, dirty language that man used—it suitly was the wust Ah evah heard. Now you know, Mistah Malley. That I've a hard workin' woman, and nevah asked nobody for a cent. Well, just 'cause Ah would not go and nuss this man's wife, who has the smallpox, why he stahs in abusin' me. And, Mistah Malley, you know I've scared to death of smallpox. Once when a relation of mine had the smallpox down in Texas Ah was so scared Ah didn't get ovah it for six years. Now, Mistah Malley, Ah want dis man arrested for the way he talked to me. Ah don't even know his wife, an' Ah don't see why Ah should call on her when she has the smallpox."

"The way the men treat ladies in Tonopah is something awful. You ought to take every man and put him in jail and keep him there for the rest of his life. They have no respect for a lady than they have for a rattlesnake. Ah was bo'n in the worst state in the union, Texas, and even there they respect a lady. But in Tonopah it is different. Now, Mistah Malley, you know Ah's a decent, respectable lady, an' Ah don't intend any man shall talk to me like that ornery pusson done spoke—an' me scared to death of the smallpox. Ah ain't strong, Mistah Malley, but if that low down cullud pusson evah talks to me dat way again, thah's goin' to be somethin' doin'."

The rest of the conversation was lost as the reporter couldn't help but laugh and he didn't want to ruffle the feelings of the weak woman (she only weighed about 240 pounds), so he beat it down the street. From what could be learned later on, Judge Brissell was called in and he also had the pleasure of listening to the woes of the lady. Whether he succeeded in stopping the flow of eloquence induced by the injured feelings, is not known. It is believed the case was taken under advisement and the colored gent told to cut out his cruel talk when conversing with a lady.

BROTHER OF FRED STEEN DIES BY OWN HAND

COMMITTS SUICIDE AT CARSON WHILE IN A FIT OF DESPONDENCY

Fred Steen of this city received word Sunday of the death of his brother, Charles Karbstein, who committed suicide at Carson. No reason is assigned for the act, which is believed to have been done in a fit of despondency. The deceased is survived by his wife and a baby daughter and the brother in this city. But a few minutes before he fired the shot into his heart he was conversing with his wife and appeared to be in a happy frame of mind. He was a native of this state and was aged about 30 years.

'SLIM' GRIMMETT KILLED ED BAKER IN SELF DEFENSE

TRAGEDY OVER MONEY MAT-TERS OCCURS AT MINA SAT-URDAY NIGHT

During an altercation at Mina Saturday night, "Slim" Grimmer shot and killed Ed Baker, a brother of the proprietor of the Mina hotel. The men had a dispute over money matters and from the meagre information obtained, it appears that Grimmer accused Baker of not making an equal division of certain money. In the dispute that followed, Baker walked behind the bar and secured a revolver. Taking a hasty aim he fired a shot at Grimmer which went over the intended victim's head. Grimmer immediately drew his gun and fired two shots at Baker. The first went wild and lodged in the back bar, but the second struck Baker over the left eye and entered the brain, causing instant death. Grimmer surrendered to the authorities.

Yesterday morning Judge Glenn of Reno arrived at Mina and will take charge of the defense of Grimmer. Glenn was sent out by George Wingfield, who is a personal friend of the arrested man.

Grimmett was well known in southern Nevada and only a short time ago visited this city for several days. He is a gambler by occupation, and has always had a reputation as a peace loving man. There is but little doubt that he will be acquitted on the preliminary examination, as the witnesses to the affair state that he acted in self-defense.

The remains of Baker were taken yesterday to Yerington, where they will be buried in the family plot.

FRED SKINNER TO BE RETURNED THIS WEEK

SHERIFF J. J. OWENS LEAVES
TOMORROW TO SECURE CON-
VICTED MURDERER

Sheriff J. J. Owens yesterday received a dispatch from the attorney general at Carson, stating that Fred Skinner, the convicted murderer, would be turned over to him on application. The sheriff will leave tomorrow for the state prison to secure Skinner.

Skinner was convicted in the fifth judicial district court of the murder of one Mona Belle, whose true name was Isabel Hesketh. The crime was committed about two years ago at Rhyolite, and Skinner was accordingly sentenced to life imprisonment. A new trial was granted by the supreme court on the grounds of an irregularity in the instructions given the jury.

HAS NO FAITH IN NEW CAMP OF BANNOCK

GOLDFIELD MAN SAYS IT IS A POCKET PROPOSITION AND MAY PINCH OUT

Joe Maracci, of Goldfield, who has been on a visit to the new Bannock district, passed through Tonopah yesterday enroute to his home at Goldfield. He says that he has not much faith in the new camp. As he describes it, the values are found simply in a pocket of very rich rock, without the presence of a well defined vein, or even a ledge which is traceable for any distance. He says the rich pay streak which gave rise to reports from the district, measured no more than seven inches at the bottom of the prospect hole in which the discovery was made, and that other parties who have sunk to a depth of 25 feet within a very short distance of where the rich strike has been encountered, cannot find the slightest trace of gold.

In the rich streak Mr. Maracci says the rock shows the free gold in goodly quantities, but the absence of a ledge or vein is in his judgment against the find, and indicative of the fact that the ore is simply a pocket deposit which may pinch out at any moment or may in time turn out big.

At any rate the situation, declared Mr. Maracci, did not appeal to him.

'THE DEVIL' TO BE PLAYED IN THIS CITY

RETURN ENGAGEMENT WILL BE PLAYED BY THE LORRAINE
BUCHANAN COMPANY

The Lorraine Buchanan company, which played such a successful engagement at the Nevada theatre week before last, will return to Tonopah again next Thursday for a return engagement for four days only, with a new line of plays for each night.

For the opening engagement on Thursday night the company will present the laughable four-act comedy entitled, "His Wife's Husband," and on Friday night they will be seen in the great eastern sensation of last year, "The Devil." The bills for the other two nights will be announced later.

The Buchanan company is one of the best little popular priced companies that has ever visited Tonopah and theatre goers will be glad to hear that we are to have them for a return engagement of four nights. The same popular prices will prevail—25, 50 and 75 cents.

COLORED GENT WHO CARRIED GUN GETS SIX MONTHS

CHARLES LOGAN GETS MAXI-MUM PENALTY FOR HIS LITTLE STUNT

Charles Logan, the colored porter who was arrested Saturday night when he threatened to kill his wife and son and also threatened the life of Mrs. Louise Toles and her son, was tried yesterday morning in the justice court before Judge Brissell. The charge placed against Logan was carrying a concealed weapon, to which he pleaded guilty. He also waived the delay in receiving sentence and the court ordered him to serve six months in the county jail and also pay a fine of $500.

Logan can thank his lucky stars that he escaped so easily, for if the charge of threatening to kill had also been placed against him, it is almost a certainty that he would repose in the county jail for a time double that of his present term of incarceration.
